

#ResistHarm

We are a movement of diverse people and partner organizations who are committed to resisting the evils and injustice of the Traditional Plan.

WAYS TO BE INVOLVED:

Prayer

"The thing to remember is not to read so much or talk so much about God, but to talk to God. To practice the presence of God."

– DOROTHY DAY, CATHOLIC PACIFIST, JOURNALIST, & WOMEN'S RIGHTS ACTIVIST

Prayer Guides are available on #ResistHarm for personal, small group, or congregational study.

Education

"It cannot be that the people should grow in grace unless they give themselves to reading. A reading people will always be a knowing people."

– JOHN WESLEY

Monthly book discussions and educational videos are available on #ResistHarm for personal, small group, or congregational study.

Worship

We invite you incorporate the work of resisting harm into the worship life of your church or group. On #ResistHarm, you will find resources for use during Sunday worship, small group meetings, or vigils and special services. In the faithful postures of worship, we invite God to work with us as we resist harm and proclaim the expansive grace of Jesus Christ.

Direct Action and Advocacy

"If you are neutral in situations of injustice, you have chosen the side of the oppressor." – ARCHBISHOP DESMOND TUTU

The Direct Action Study Guide and advocacy suggestions are available on #ResistHarm for personal, small group, or congregational study.

Clergy Support

The discrimination posed by the Traditional Plan is increased but not new. Since the "incompatibility" language was added to the Discipline in 1972, LGBTQ people have suffered inequality and discrimination.

How to support our clergy and a history of harm are on #ResistHarm.

Ideas for Action

#ResistHarm offers plenty of ideas for your use. The ideas came from a broadly representative group of United Methodists who gathered after the Special General Conference. They reflect the diversity of contexts around the connection.
