

Discussion Questions for April

1. What did you like best about this book?
2. What did you like least about this book?
3. What topic resonated most with you?
4. Share a favorite quote from the book. Why did this quote stand out?
5. What feelings did this book evoke for you?
6. What do you think the purpose of this book is? Who is the intended audience?
7. If you could hear another perspective on any of the topics listed in the book, who's would it be and why?
8. Did the topics in the book seem realistic?
9. What did you already know about the topics in the book before you read it?
10. What aspects of the topics covered could you relate to the most?
11. What gaps do you wish were covered in this book?
12. What similarities do the chapters in this book share? How do they tie together?
13. What did you find surprising about the facts introduced in this book?
14. How has reading this book changed your opinion of a certain person or topic?
15. Do the authors present information in a way that is interesting and insightful, and if so, how does he or she achieve this?
16. If the author is writing on a debatable issue, does he or she give proper consideration to all sides the debate? Does he or she seem to have a bias?
17. How has the book increased your interest in the subject matter?
18. What questions do you still have?